LOVE, LISTEN, LEARN, LEAD

“In Him we live and move and have our being.” (Acts 17:28)

Dear JOYful family,

Here's a life goal: daily choosing the ways of God.

In doing so, our sinful, finite selves are still going to mess up and fail. When we enter the mission field (which is every day, everywhere) we always have an opportunity to engage and connect. I know that many of you do this. My wife Debbie, when she's on the job at Yankee Candle, for instance. She has a blessed knack, a gift, for making the customers feel better. Often times these encounters end in a hug.

We are still followers of the Most High, constantly in need of forgiveness. When our ways and daily life choices are Christ-centered, we are free to be transparent. A willingness to be vulnerable will make you a spiritual leader in someone's life. Others ought to be able to see that faith makes a difference in your life. Spiritual practices are life-changers. I'm not talking about trying to reinvent your wheel. The simple act of telling someone you're praying for them is a mark of discipleship.

We serve a living God throughout the week. Our discipleship, our Living Bread for the journey, culminates in our worship. Going through the motions will be as Continued on Page 3

Our mission is to share the Good News of grace and love with all through worship, service, and fellowship.

Continued from page 1 obvious to the outsider as sincerity. Which vision would you rather they see? All of us should convey an atmosphere, a climate of welcome for all strangers, that they may become friends, fellow sinner/saints. Paul does a beautiful thing in the first chapter of Colossians. He tells that congregation that he prays for them. He asks that God would fill them with the knowledge of His will. He prays for their commitment of time, talent and treasure (the “three T’s” are my interpretation). Bear fruit in all good works. Be strengthened by the glorious might of His power. Christian Schwarz, who created Natural Church Development, calls wisdom, power, and commitment the three dimensions of ministry. We are given these gifts by the Holy Spirit. May we grow in grace, love by serving, and invite others into this community within a challenging world.

See you in church.

PACK THE PANTRY

INTERFAITH
SERVICES

During the month of October let's
PACK THE PANTRY with non-perishable food items. We didn't make any deliveries to the Interfaith Food Pantry for the past three months. So, now that we're back in the sanctuary, let's fill that Food cabinet.

Cereals, canned soups and meals, pasta and sauce, peanut butter and jelly, canned vegetables, canned meat or tuna just a few of the items needed. Plastic jars are preferred over glass containers.

Thanks for your support. Joe & Judy Spillane

STEWARDSHIP

A message about Commitment Sunday, October 15, 2023

God is committed to us. That’s really important. As Paul tells us, “If God is for us, who can be against us? He who did not withhold his own Son, but gave him up for all of us, will he not with him also give us everything else?” (Romans 8:31b-32). We, in turn, are committed to God. That’s what faith is about.

One practical way we express our faith is by making a financial commitment to our church so it can carry out its mission to share the Good News of grace and Love. We are being asked to make a financial commitment to support Joy Lutheran Church at the services on October 15.

What will happen on Commitment Sunday, October 15:

On that day, commitment cards in envelopes will be available on a table as you enter the sanctuary. Please pick up the envelope addressed to you or your family, but please don’t fill out your card yet.

After the sermon we will be invited to fill out a commitment card indicating our financial support for Joy in 2024. When the card is complete, please put it back in the envelope.

At the appropriate time, everyone will be invited to bring the cards forward to place the commitment in the Ark in front of the altar. We encourage families to come together to place the commitment into the Ark.

Between now and then, please think about the way your church has served you and others. Consider possibly increasing your commitment for 2024.

The following chart gives some suggestions for making a greater impact on the ministries of Joy by increasing your giving in 2024.

| If you currently give (2023): | Please consider increasing your weekly giving for 2024 by: |
|--------------------------------------|---|
| Less than $10 | $1 |
| $10-$19 | $2 |
| $20-$29 | $3 |
| $30-$39 | $4 |
| $40-$59 | $5 |
| $60-$79 | $6 |
| $80-$100 | $7 |
| Above $100 | $8 |

If you currently do not give, please prayerfully consider making an initial commitment of $5.00 a week.

May you continue to be blessed and to be a blessing through the ministries of Joy Lutheran Church.

On Sunday, September 10th we welcomed 6 new members at Joy. All the craziness of the past two months didn't scare them away, nor did the cramped quarters at Swenson Hall. We are happy to have them in our Joy family. Please continue to reach out and welcome them!

Welcome to Our Church

COUNCIL

In order to have a more secure church, the Church Council decided that the transept doors should be exit only. It is desirable to have everyone enter the building through a door attended by an usher.

To implement this change we will begin with the transept doors (behind the organ and piano) on the 83rd Place side of the church. Ultimately, the other transept doors will also be exit only, and arrivals will use the front doors when entering from the parking lot side. We apologize for any inconvenience this change may create.

I talked to JR:

Men - sign put up 10/2, tables 10/16, get garage ready for sale all week

Women - set up week Swenson Hall and do pricing.

If there is a certain area you want to be in let us know

Jim Morris is a Texas high school chemistry teacher and coach of the school's baseball team. He's always loved baseball and as a way of motivating his players, he agrees to go to a professional try-out if they win the championship. He once had aspirations to be a professional baseball player but an injury brought that to an end. Sure enough, the 39 year-old father of three finds himself at a camp for the Tampa Bay Devil Rays and he somehow seems to have regained his pitching arm, easily throwing a 98 mph fastball. Signed to a contract, he toils in the minor leagues while his supportive wife stays home raising their children. He soon finds himself called up to the big club and pitching for Tampa which is in Texas playing the Rangers. Based on a true story.
